

That Brownish Blur of Fur

The door opens and this horse of brown fur comes galloping into the room. This is the way we are greeted by Gabi every morning. Gabi reminds me of my dog even though my dog is a lot smaller. Gabi is always there for you when you're sad inside and don't know what to do with those feelings. Gabi gives me a lot of energy whenever I play with him. He is very gentle and kind. He has a big heart and accepts you no matter what you look like. He is my biggest fan even when I mess up. He makes me stand tall even when I'm not strong enough to hold myself up. He's my best friend while I'm here at Grandfather Academy.
